After-school program to resume on Aug. 24

FOLLANSBEE — The Brooke-Hancock-Ohio-Marshall Retired and Senior Volunteer Program will resume its after-school program on Aug. 24 from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Brooke County Senior Center at 948 Main St. The program is aimed at middle school students but open to children 6 and up and operated with the help of volunteers who assist the children with their homework, supervise them in using the Internet and provide them with other activities. Snacks are provided. Those interested in having their children participating should call (304) 527-3410 by Aug. 21.
